Excerpt of pertinent information :

Letter to General Nicolae Radescu re Romanian National Committee:

... "In regard to the allocation for the Secretary-General, you know I am not in favor of using this sum without approval by the Committee. On the other hand, sums which will be at the disposal of the secretariats at New York and Washington, according to a fixed budget, should be handled by competent organs of the National Committee in accordance with normal, elementary rule of good administration.

"I believe it is my duty to underline that it is not to be expected that anyone would make a donation or payment under any circumstances to the Committee as long as there were no guarantee of a regular administration to account for the funds. . . ."
